We would like to extend our Special Thanks to the following for their help and support in publishing this book:

*ECOS and the Executive Council,
Angela DeRose and the Media Committee,
Barry McDowell, Nina Wilmot and the rest of the Student Affairs Staff,
The Triton Tribune for the use of their office space and staff assistance,
All those who submitted candid photos for our pages, AND all the seniors who contributed their thoughts and faces to the Senior Section.*

We hope that you enjoy this 1988-89 yearbook which we slaved very hard over. We hope that you will keep in mind that putting a yearbook together is not an easy task, especially for a small staff. We tried our best to produce the highest quality yearbook possible with the money, time and resources allotted. Please remember this if you find any faults within the pages. Thank you.

Double the pleasure, double the fun.

Top: Fun, fun, fun 'til security takes the golf cart away!
Left: All I need is my bike. That's all I need.
Above: We are women, see us lounge.
Right: When roommates snore.

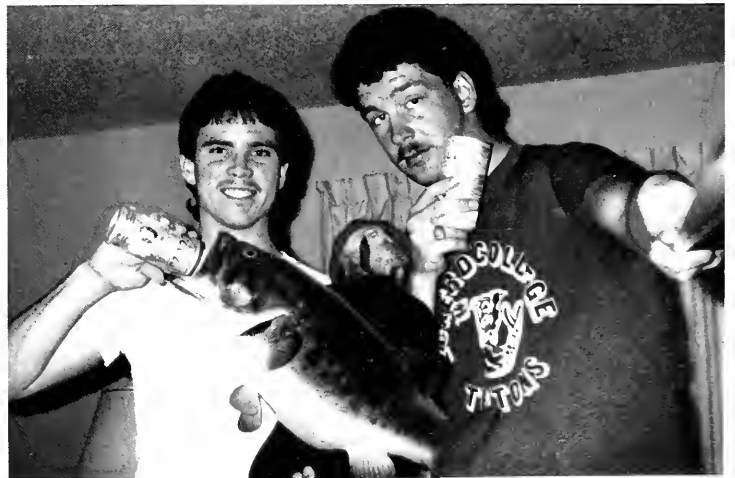

Who you calling a gargoye?

Far left: Once I got started, I just couldn't seem to stop myself.

Left: "Get outa my way. I'm late for class.

— Quote from Mother, Claudine Williams
Mamma and Daddy, I DID IT!

Last Will And Testament

I, Nasir Abbasi, leave behind all my memories — to security, the memory of my red "dot" CRX; to the admissions office, the memory of me coming in whenever there was food; to my friends, the memory of all the good times we've had; to the next person whose last name starts with an "A", my campus mailbox, #1; to the next ISA President, I leave all the things I couldn't finish; to Ms. Lillie Collins I leave the mini-festival of cultures; and to the Ford scholars less stipend money — sorry!

I, Katherine "Kay" Acol, leave to upstairs Knox, "THE" sash . . . Adria and Duwa, EARPLUGS; to Tommie, a "twinkie", love, a decision, and quarters (for Dan too); and to TKHFBUMGJBJT and the cast of 100's everlasting memories!!

I, Bart Allen, leave to Dan Winter the advice to lift weights 'cause Lou and I won't be there to save you anymore; to Chris Patton, all the "bangits"; to Ace and Los, all my spur-of-the-moment, half ass, road trip ideas; to the whole bunch of Kennedy idiots, "You're all a bunch of F-ing Rednecks anyhow!!"

I, Carmen J. Andress, leave to Dr. Jennings my Mark Trail Comic and road rash; and to Dr. Reynolds 1000 red pens, 300 new plaid shirts.

I, Benn Barr, leave to all my friends the best of luck in all you do, and don't forget to have a good time while you're doing it. Seeeee ya!

I, Mark D. Blakeman, leave Betsy (my bike) to anyone who dares to ride a death trap, my skateboard to Colin who should keep trying to get a ramp on campus; and to Mr. C., Fuzzbot, Dogsh — Digger, Fish, John and Dean what's left of the greenhouse to the Three Amigos tradition alive.

I, Sherry L. Boyer, leave to Lena Wilfalk my undying respect; to Dan Jeffre one long distance hug a day and 25 cents; to Scott Alexander all of Japan: Gambate, ne!; and to Skip my mission to de-elite the Honours Program.

I, Sandy Collum, leave to Kathy Hwang thanks, friendship, love, support, chinese food; to Scott Sandmeyer my neverending love and undying devotion; and to Eckerd College all my bills!

I, Katherine Coric, leave to this happy golf course of a college my baby, the rag over which I laboured so long and hard. Good riddance!

I, Mark Davenport, leave to Connie the height to come up in the world; and to Brad some study (what?) habits, and to Scott my guitar skills.

I, Angela Derose, leave Lizzer, Beffer, Allifart, and Debs T/A monorail rides, smut, laughter, ice cream, Europe, OWCS, wee wee rooms, and all my love!

I, Jenny Dillon, leave Kim my beyond-white skin, gummers, and a "bottle of red . . ."; and to Helen a shotglass, bottle of tequila, and a blender; to Susan great study habits; to Sherry "real food"; and to Eckerd my purple shadow.

Not being of sound mind or body, I, Darryll Dockstader, fully recognize that at this point and time in my life I have very little to bequeath. However, if it is in any way possible, I would like to somehow give my ability to speak in clear English to my boss and good friend, Mohammad Torabi. Maybe, someday you will acquire that ability. Until then, Praise the Lord.

I, Doreen Erickson, leave to computer majors endless hours at the terminals; to math majors the joy of completing proofs; and to progressive music fans memories of Masquerade.

I, T. Jay Farley, leave behind all my problems and look to the future. To those who knew me, I hope I gave you something to think about.

I, Heather Hanson, leave to Greta Eck - TV and all of the adrenaline that is necessary; and to Steve my big blue; and to Skip my buzzed giggles; and to Teri, my last wet dreams!"

I, Lana Hodge, leave to Cyndi, Robert, Christina, and Stephanie, for all you've been to me, my zany and adventurous love of life. Missing you already — Lana.

I hope that I've been able to convey the message that all people from all cultures share the same feelings and emotions. The cultural differences stuff is overrated and serves as an obstacle because it frightens people. — Taner Horoz.

I, Melissa Horton, leave to my friends all the wonderful times and memories of Darwin and Eckerd. I'll miss you!

I, Doug Hulst, will the good times and the bad to the Tritons of the past and the future.

I, Pamela Jones, of "petite" mind and body, leave Sydney (the last remaining TRUE Henderson Hall Hussie) a new and improved dorm — head mascot; to Lumpy, some shorts with good elastic; to Pratchi, a pair of invisible glass dancing shoes; to Addy, all my old Bio tests; to Kief, a drive thru window at Saga so he can eat even faster.

Ain't no poor, he with no cent but he with no dreams. — Abdoul Karim Kone

I, Jared S. Lagemenn, leave all my parking ticket fees in an Escrow Account; don't spend it all in one place.

I, Greg Lepore, leave to Keith Jackson my Dick Vitale voice to carry on the PT performance.

You can always count on your friends as long as you know who they are. — Tracey Maxfield

I, Carolyn C. May, leave to all my friends my wit and humour, along with my various facial expressions, which always brightened their day!

Thanks Eckerd for 4 great years! — Kristin Parker.

I, Elaine Potter, being of kind heart and halfway sound body leave to my best buddy Kristy my Circle K Spirit, to my friend Julio all my Madonna tapes; and to my favourite professor Howard my crayons and colouring book.

I, Susan Reuter, leave to Beth the hell box; to Pete and Lorin the "three man" dice; to Eileen O'Reilly Henderson 14; and to Paul my unpaid bills.

I, Beckster (Becky Rowland), leave to T. memories of fun, friendship, and one wild Christmas party!

Thanks Eckerd for the memories! — Juan Rubio

I, Janet Scariot, leave to my wonderful waterski team the best of luck in the future! I leave the bunch in student affairs my excellent organizational skills and my appreciation for their support. To the underclassman friends in Kennedy B-G something and leave Bart alone! To my "love" Chris thanks for the memories! Don't visit Dendy too often. Finally, to all my graduation buddies I'll miss you lots!

I, Lorin Schuchavdt, leave Hubbard house the volleyball that has gotten so much use over the year as well as a pair of dice, and the sta-puff man for the new R.A.'s to keep up the Zeta tradition.

I, Karl Schuppe, leave the Eckerd Community this thought: Remember that life, like school, is what you make of it. (Thanks Dean Hallin and Dean Smith for the opportunity.)

I, John Sebring, leave to Jackie Nickolson a comps gift: a defective Litton microwave.

I, Linda Sebring, leave to Mark Smith a sense of the ridiculous; to Sandra Harris a less eventful group work class; and to Dave White memories of you sailing free — I miss you and I love you.

I, Roxanne Shatas, leave to Karin our fun and travels. Remember — live it up!; and to Mila, Anne and friends camp Eckerd. Enjoy it — you'll be out before you know it.

I, Melissa Solla, leave Karen S. the Sunday night movie and to Mr. Bill and Tracey — Mohammad! and to Student Affairs the Dance Marathon! Love you all.

I, Beth Ustas, leave to Lumpy ten man dice; to Pete and Lorin double sixes; to Susan, Otto; and to Kay, screwdrivers.

I, Beth A. Virgil, leave to all my friends my best wishes in all their endeavors and a happy and successful future. I hope all your dreams are fulfilled!

I, Patricia Ann Walsh, leave to Kelli Hammer, Angela Reinhardt, and Robin Payne many more good times cheer-leading! I'll miss you guys!

I, Ernestine Williams, leave Tina Stroh and Elaine Hinchey in charge of ISA Fashion Show 1990! — Plenty of luck!; and to Elaine "I still haven't found what I'm looking for."

I, Elizabeth Wright, leave to Douglas House all my leftover inventory forms: next year, do your own!; and to Tina Bombina all my photos from London and my travel journal!

I, Raul Morales Zorrilla, offer my thanks to "Gnomo" Janet R. Mangum for her patience in proofreading all my papers. Y a la gallega y a la viesia por bancarme este tiempo.

ISA hosts the Annual Fashion Show

What have you bought for me lately?

Head and shoulders to the rescue.

The International Students Association (ISA) hosted its annual Fashion Show in Binger Theatre. The show featured the latest styles modeled by Eckerd students. The outfits for the show were donated by local clothing stores. Among the outfits modeled were swimwear, casual wear, sports wear, and formal wear.

A jolly sporting deuce.

Theatre

Two By Two

The theatre department's major production this year was Richard Roger's, Two by Two. The musical comedy told the story of Noah and his ark. Cast and crew sang and danced their way through a twenty-two show tour of Florida, the last four shows being held in Binger Theatre. The show was directed by Professor Richard Rice and his stage crew included Stage Manager June Arnini, Sound Technicians, David Lowe and Scott Preston, and Lighting Technician, Matt Staman.

Two by Two starred alumnus Chris Rosenberg as Noah and displayed the talents of the following Eckerd students:

Benn Barr	Japeth
Eric Bonesteel	Ham
Carole Fell	Esther
John D. Godbout	Shem
Amy King	Goldie
Colleen O'Mara	Rachel
Debbie Stacey	Leah

When they weren't working on Two by Two, the theatre department kept busy with many other projects. These efforts took the forms of a weekly variety show called "D'Wolf and Pendergrass", and a Winter Term presentation of Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" in Slater's Woods. In addition one-acts such as "Roots of Chaos" were produced throughout the year.

John Godbout, Chris Rosenberg, and Carole Fell attempt to convince Benn Barr of the joys of living "Two by Two."; Colleen O'Mara sings a song of woe to Carole Fell.

Forever in my Garden

*Blossom breathes the night air
And drinks the morning dew
But frost, when it comes early
Hurts many after claiming the few.
And the garden, less the richer
For the loss within its fold
The delicate stem and petals
But a truth remains untold ...
Spring will follow Winter
And life will bloom again
The garden will rejoice
And greet the sun as friend.*

David White

*A ship's silhouette in the sunset
Sails hoisted to half mast
Isolated from the regatta
For its racing days have passed.*

*Gliding free out towards beyond
Away from bar, and beach, and bay.
It's cutting deeper waters
Where some by chance may stray.*

*Growing fainter still
Since setting off, without a wave
But the memories you left behind
Mean the most of those who save.*

*Perhaps it's in those moments
When all alone you stand
The traces that are left behind
Can't be washed away like sand.*

*Gulls fly over the water
And the day begins anew
Time itself sails onward
As we remember you.*

This page is dedicated in memory of Bridget Denier and David White.
Thanks for all that you gave us, especially the memories you have left and the chance to know you.
